

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
MARTINSBURG

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Criminal Action No. 3:08-CR-77-01
Judge Bailey

BARTON JOSEPH ADAMS,

Defendant.

ORDER

On this day, the above-styled matter came before the Court for consideration of the following pro se motions filed by defendant Barton Joseph Adams: Motion for a Pretrial Adversarial Probable Cause Hearing on the Issue of Forfeitability [Doc. 985]; Motion to Dismiss the Indictment for Statutory and/or Constitutional Speedy Trial Violation [Doc. 1002]; Motion to Set Aside Civil Contempt under Recalcitrant Witness Laws [Doc. 1004]; Motion to Set Aside Civil Contempt Because the Defendant was Declared Incompetent on June 17, 2011 [Doc. 1006]; Motion to Purge the Civil Contempt of an Incompetent Patient [Doc. 1009].

A defendant has a Sixth Amendment right to be represented by an attorney, but a defendant has no right to act as co-counsel as defendant Adams has attempted to do in filing these pro se motions. United States v. Tarantino, 846 F.2d 1384, 1420 (D.C. Cir. 1988), cert. denied, 488 U.S. 867 (1988). It is within the sound discretion of this Court to allow a defendant to assume some of his lawyer's functions, that is, to engage in "hybrid representation.” See United States v. LaChance, 817 F.2d 1491, 1498 (11th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 928 (1987) (citing United States v. Mills, 704 F.2d 1553, 1557 (11th Cir. 1983) and United States v. Daniels, 572 F.2d 535, 540 (5th Cir. 1978)). Hybrid representation, however, should be permitted only where a defendant has made a showing of some special need to act as co-counsel. United States v. West, 877 F.2d 281, 293 (4th Cir. 1989), cert. denied, 493 U.S. 959 (1989).

Having reviewed these motions, this Court finds that the defendant has not made a sufficient showing of necessity for this Court to allow defendant to act as co-counsel to his appointed counsel in this matter. Accordingly, the following motions filed as pro se motions by the defendant are hereby DENIED: Motion for a Pretrial Adversarial Probable Cause Hearing on the Issue of Forfeitability [Doc. 985]; Motion to Dismiss the Indictment for Statutory and/or Constitutional Speedy Trial Violation [Doc. 1002]; Motion to Set Aside Civil Contempt under Recalcitrant Witness Laws [Doc. 1004]; Motion to Set Aside Civil Contempt Because the Defendant was Declared Incompetent on June 17, 2011 [Doc. 1006]; Motion to Purge the Civil Contempt of an Incompetent Patient [Doc. 1009].

It is so ORDERED.

The Clerk is directed to transmit a copy of this order to counsel for the defendant and mail a copy to the defendant acting as a pro se defendant.

DATED: June 18, 2012.

JOHN PRESTON BAILEY
CHIEF UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
